FRIDAY EVE'NG., JANUARY 1. GOLD AND OIL SPECULATIONS. - Late dispatches from California mention another gold and silver mining craze, with the speculative feeling running higher and wider than for many years. The recent wonderful discoveries in Comstock, Consolidated, Virginia, Crown Point and Belcher, read like leaves from the tales of the Arabian Nights. One lucky individual is per-onally alluded to as General Thowas H. Williams, whose profits in these shares are are over $2,000 000 Within a week one of his stocks, the California, has risen $100 per share, and his profits in fortyeight hours were $650,000 - more than $25,000 per hour, provided they could be realized upon at quotations. It is a pity that these gold mining share operators could not be induced to carry their memories back to the days of speculations in Pennsylvania oil company shares. Advances then of 100 per cent. per day were no uncommon occurrences, and yet a year and half saw the values of some of the best of them wilted away to nothing. Millions on millions of dollars, as represented by papor shares, were swallowed up in that crazed speculation. Where were then populous regions and thriving towns may now be found desertion and decay, the lands not worth the payment of a tax. There are localities in which some oil is produced and sold at small profits, but there is no market for shares in oil companies. They have nearly or quite all gone un-

A PRIZE.-Mr. W. W. Myers, proprietor of the cigar-stand and liquor store on the corner of Fourteenth and Main streets, is the holder of the half ticket in the Masonic Relief Association of Norfolk numered 11,545, which drew the capital prize. The capital prize was ad vertised to be $30,000, but was scaled seventyfive per cent., and will therefore be only $7-, 500. Of this sum Mr. Meyers gets $3,750. He was one of the agents of the Relief Association, and when his returns were made up ticket No. 11,545 was left on hand unsold. He kept half of the ticket and remitted for it, and sent the other half back to the Association. -Richmond Dispatch. MACHINISTS.
